Hongkong, Thursday, April 20, 1882.

We have all heard of what Shakespers terms a vaulting ambition which o'erleaps itself, and comes an ignominious cropper on the other side. The latest local victim to an overweening sense of self-importance, and an insatiable ambition to earn a cheap notoriety, is Mr. HENRY G. THOMSETT, Harbour Master, Marine Magistrate, Emigration Officer, Acting Police Magistrate, &c., of Hongkong. It is only a few days since this high official, when under cross-ex- | pression which really requires some official amination by the Coroner in the BERRY suicide case, attempted to assert his independence as the head of a government, ment under notice that we will mercifully department—and succeeded in showing which even the best friends of the gallant gentleman must keenly deplore-by positively declining to answer certain questions which Mr. Workhousk considered must have been a perfect study. relevant to the inquiry, on the ground Coroner ought to be elicited by a had, so far as we are aware, no earthly of vessels will find the navigation of the manner in which he performed certain offiself-opinionated and perverse—that the laborious services." public were, under the circumstances, particulary anxious to find a remedy for the much talked of discharged seamen grievance, and that the Coroner was to the best of his ability, and in the most courteous manner possible, endeavoring to discharge a very difficult duty he owed to the Government and the community. The Coroner's questions were simple, and to the point; they cut at the root the evil, which, after BERRY's suicide, in the plainest possible terms cried out for reform; and they were not intended in any way to reflect on Mr., Thouserr's official conduct or discretion, nor to interfere in the slightest degree with his prerogaever called upon to do so; however, shield- ever, valuable and laborious services he ing himself behind official red-tape-justi- may perform, the necessity for all this last night, making room for the Butuan.

If Mr. HENRY G. THOMSETT is such a stickler for red-tape formalities, it seems a pity that he cannot show a slight amount of consistency in his worship at the shrine of official etiquette. The Harbour Master's annual report, published in last Saturday's Gazette is not altogether in accordance with the principles which Mr. THOMSETT preached last week with so much tenacious effusiveness before his worship, the Coroner. A more informal official report from the head of a Government department to the Colonial Secretary we never read. Under ordinary circumstances we should scarcely deem it worth our while to notice even glaring blunders in the minor details of such an important official report, as that of the Harbour Master; but as Mr. H. G. THOMSETT has chosen to make himself obstructive to the loudly expressed wishes of the recent Convention, entered into bea most deplorable scandal in one of our public courts, justifying himself for so doing by asserting that the course of examination pursued by the Coroner was not in accordance with official custom, rule, or etiquette, we feel no compunction whatever in stripping the borrowed plumes showing how easily this rigid sticklor for noutine can glide from official custom when | perience in their native country. it serves his own purpose to do so.

What does Mr. H. G. THOMSETT know of "the valuable and laborious services of the captains and officers of the Magpie?" How is it that the valuable and laborious services of the crew of that vessel are so conspicuously overlooked by the estimable Harbour Master? Is the worthy ex-commander of the Princess Charlotte a believer in the theory that the crew should do all the work, and the officers receive all the credit? It seems remarkably like it. However, the references to the gratitude which shipmasters ought to feel to these energetic "captains and officers" for doing work for which they are specially engaged and sufficiently remunerated by tives. What has the Harbour Master of Hongkong to do officially with any diplomatic proceedings, between the governments of China and the United States? If Mr. THOMSETT is an advocate of Chinese emigration to America or elsewhere, would be just as well if he would keep his private opinions—which practically cannot be of any material value-out of the official documents of his department

The following paragraphs appear to us to be strangely out of place in an annual statistical return, and it will be noted that the Harbour Master himself is of our opinion, as he observes that the subjects dealt with are not matters for discussion in the, report :- "It is a strange commentary on the community, and has ventured to create tween the United States of America and China for the purpose of checking emigration, to find that 14,127 more Chinese have been introduced into those States than landed there in 1880, and Chinese are still going over in large numbers, for the pur- Manila. The following passage on the Breakwater is worthy of close attention:--"The construction of the Breakwater for the make this Refuge complete it will be necessary to dredge a considerable portion of the inclosed space. A good dredging machine, if the Colony possessed one, an embankment along the Praya, which, at low water, not only prevents cargo and other boats from getting close inshore to discharge and load, but the filth deposited by the drains creates such a stench, especially in the summer months, that it only requires one's hours to be spent, as mine are, in an Office on the Praya, fully to appreciate the evil."

Mr. H. G. THOMSETT IS evidently not in favour of the drainage system of sanitation. He says, in effect, that the stench on the months, is unendurable; and after bearing testimony to his own regular attendance at the Harbour Office, winds up with the amusing statement that it requires one's hours to be spent, (as his are) in an office on the Praya, fully to appreciate the evil. And yet Mr. THOMSETT declined to answer the Coroner's questions at the recent Inquest, because he considered them irrelevant. We await the issue of the dead-lock in the Coroner's Court with much anxiety.

THREE coolies were brought up this morning before Captain Thomsett charged with stowing themselves away on board the steamship Patroclus from Amoy to Hongkong on the 19th instant. Captain White, the Master, said defendants were found on board after the vessel had left Amoy, that they had no passenger tickets, nor permission to be there. Defendants, who admitted the charge, were sentenced to fourteen days' hard labour each, unless able to purchase tickets, in which case they could be released.

YET another illustration of the evils of gambling among the Chinese is furnished by the embezzlement case reported elsewhere. From a letter found on the prisoner when arrested, it would appear that he gambled away all the money embezzled by him, and it may safely be assumed that the vice of gambling first led him to.app-opnate his master's money to his own use. The prisoner's intention of not gambling any more was unhappily formed too late to be of any benefit to him.

The battery, between forty and fifty strong, and two companies of the Lascars, numbering over Harbour of Refuge is progressing, but to | ninety, were formed up on the Garrison Parade Ground shortly before seven o'clock, waiting for the General, but, the rain increasing in volume, they were obliged to seek a partial shelter underneath the trees lining the eastern portion of the ground, where they had scarcely taken up a posiwould always find employment, as the tion, when the General's Aide-de-camp rode up foreshore is constantly silting up, forming to intimate His Excellency would inspect the men at the Barracks. His Excellency having inspected the ranks, the men were moved on to the battery parade ground, where they did a march past in very good form, considering there was no Band Praya, especially during the summer present to move their warlike souls with its martial strains, and coax their nether man to move in unison with the music. This afternoon drill with seven pounder mountain, and 64 pounder muzzle loading guns, was gone through on the battery parade ground in presence of the General, several detachments of the Artillery and Gun Lascars working the guns. The defendant, who said Eusebio had stopped her water, which led to a dispute, was fined twenty-five cents or one day's imprisonment.

WE would direct attention to the advertisement in another column announcing the performance of Pedrotti's well known comic opera, "Tutti in Maschera" by the Italian Opera Cor pany, on Tuesday next, for the benefit of signora Pinelli. The young prima donna has, during her short season in Hongkong, dollars, and stating he had already lost a proved herself to be a talented and conscientious artiste, especially distinguishing herself in the lighter class of opera-such as "Tutti in Maschera"-and we therefore trust she will receive extensive patronage. Pedrotti's comic sketch is exceedingly amusing, and as Signora Pinelli, who appears as Vitoria, will be supported by the full strength of the company, we shall doubtless see a crowded house.

POLICE COURT .- THIS DAY

EMBEZZLEMENT BY A SHOPMAN. The case, remanded from yesterday, in which Wong Lin, a shopman, is charged with embezzling about $901.17, the money of Fung Ying, master of the Kwong Fuk Cheung shop, 243, Queen's Road West, came on again this morning before Mr Wodehouse. The compradore of Messrs. Eesman and Co., Gage-street, testified to defendant, whom he had known as a bill collector of the Kwong Fuk Cheung for over a year, presenting an order on the 15th January last from his (the compradore's) master for $187.38, which was paid to him, the stamp of defendant's firm being obtained on the order as a receipt. The accountant of Messrs. Hajee Bazann, 28, Lyndhurst Terrace, proved having paid the desendant $284.69, on the 17th January, on an order from his master, the chop of desendant's shop being impressed as a receipt. Abdool Hussem Abdool Alee deposed to paying him $229 on 28th January, and Abdool Kerim $200 on the 31st January, making altogether $001.17. The Accountant of the Kwong Fuk Cheong shop said the sums mentioned in the papers shewn him, purporting to be receipts by his firm, were actually owing to the firm for goods sold by them to the different witnesses, but that in no case had the firm received the amounts. The defendent was not authorized to collect the money. What he did was to take the shop's books containing the entries of things sold to different firms, make out bills, and then use the shop's chop by way of receipt. He suspected the defendant, and upon enquiry of different firms found they had paid him bills to the extent of Soot. 17, which the witness's firm had never received. Police sergeant Fisher, who arrested the prisoner in Wellington Street, found on him a letter asking for the loan of thirty or forty thousand in gambling, but did not intend to gamble any more. The letter was addressed To my uncle." The prisoner being duly cautioned according to law, asked the witnesses if it was he who sold them the goods, to which they each replied that it was the firm who sold them, through him. He was then committed for trial,
